

Title 3. Food and Agriculture
Division 2. Animal Industry
Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals
Article 1. Permits for Transportation and Sale of Diseased Animals
§ 1300. Compliance with Federal Regulations.

(a) The requirements of these articles are supplementary to those of the United States Department of Agriculture in Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 71.3 (2012 Edition). Whenever any permit is required by these articles, such requirements may be satisfied by filing with the Department of Food and Agriculture (Department) a copy of a permit or comparable documents issued by the United States Department of Agriculture and containing substantially the same information and requirements.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 9562, 9570 and 18735, Food and Agricultural Code.

Title 3. Food and Agriculture
Division 2. Animal Industry
Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals
Article 1. Permits for Transportation and Sale of Diseased Animals
§ 1300.1. Permit for Transportation of Diseased Animals into California.

(a) A permit for transporting diseased animals into California is required for any livestock, as defined in section 18663 of the Food and Agricultural Code, known to have any of the following conditions or diseases or manifesting any of the following diseased conditions:

- (1) Abnormal temperature (high or low)
- (2) Difficult breathing
- (3) Abnormal swellings
- (4) Foul odor and running sores
- (5) Tumors or cancer growths
- (6) Gangrene of the udder (blue bag)
- (7) Water belly or swollen brisket
- (8) Infections of the region of eye (epithelioma-eye cancer in which the eye is destroyed or covered with a tissue mass showing infection, suppuration, and necrosis, usually accompanied with a foul odor).
- (9) Any other condition as determined by the State Veterinarian that may pose a threat for the introduction or spread of livestock conditions or diseases into the State.

(b) Requests for permits required under subsection (a) shall be made to the California Department of Food and Agriculture, Animal Health and Food Safety Services, Animal Health Branch, 1220 "N" Street, Sacramento, CA 95814, and may also be made by telephone, electronic transmission or other means approved by the Department. Requests for permits shall be made before the animals are transported to California and shall include the name and address of the consignor and consignee, and the number, breed, and type of livestock.

(c) The consignor, as a condition for the issuance of the permit, shall agree to comply with requirements which may include:

- (1) Description and marking, or individual identification of the livestock;
- (2) Designation of the carrier and the time and place of destination;
- (3) Segregation and holding of the livestock for inspection at destination by the consignor; and
- (4) Obtaining a certificate signed by a Federal or State veterinarian or livestock inspector, or an accredited veterinarian, that the livestock to be shipped have been examined.

(d) The consignee, as a condition for the issuance of the permit, shall agree to comply with the requirements which shall include the requirements of section 1300.11.

(e) Each permit granted pursuant to subsection (a) shall state the destination of each shipment, without diversion, as

- (1) A slaughter establishment under inspection by the Department or the United States Department of Agriculture;
- (2) An establishment licensed by the Department as a pet food slaughterer or renderer;
- (3) A named livestock saleyard or public stockyard;
- (4) An institution conducting research into animal diseases, employing a professional staff for such purpose; or
- (5) An establishment providing veterinary care.

(f) A copy of the required permit shall accompany each shipment. It shall be made available to inspectors of the Department, the United States Department of Agriculture, or law enforcement officers upon request.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 9561, 9562, 9570, 18663 and 18851, Food and Agricultural Code.

Title 3. Food and Agriculture

Division 2. Animal Industry

Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals

Article 1. Permits for Transportation and Sale of Diseased Animals

➡ § 1300.3. Violations. [Renumbered]

Title 3. Food and Agriculture

Division 2. Animal Industry

Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals

Article 2. Disposition of Animals Manifesting Disease

➡ § 1300.11. Receipt of Shipment.

(a) This article applies to livestock shipped into California pursuant to Article 1 and also to livestock from within this State shipped to a consignee stated in section 1300.1(e).

(b) Any person receiving livestock which may be manifesting any disease condition specified in subsection (a) of section 1300.1, or which were transported into California pursuant to a permit required by section 1300.1, or which were required to be shipped pursuant to a permit specified in section 1300.12 of this subchapter, shall:

- (1) Notify the Department as specified on the permit;
 - (2) Segregate the animals in specifically marked pens or enclosures;
 - (3) Hold the animals for inspection when required by the permit;
 - (4) Dispose of such animals by sale or otherwise only in accordance with this article; and
 - (5) Prepare and maintain records of the transaction involving the animals showing compliance with such requirements.
- (c) The provisions of this section are not intended to apply to livestock not required to be transported under permit which were apparently normal and healthy when received for transportation to a premises where livestock are commercially held for feeding (feed lot) in preparation for slaughter.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 9561, 9562, 9570 and 18851, Food and Agricultural Code.

Title 3. Food and Agriculture
Division 2. Animal Industry
Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals
 Article 2. Disposition of Animals Manifesting Disease
➡§ 1300.12. Sale or Disposal.

- (a) Livestock received under the provisions of section 1300.11 shall be sold, transferred, transported, or otherwise disposed of only as follows:
- (b) If the receiving consignee is a person operating a slaughter establishment under inspection by the Department or United States Department of Agriculture, the livestock may be presented for inspection and disposition as provided pursuant to sections 18721 and 18722 of the Food and Agricultural Code and comparable provisions of the Federal Meat Inspection Act. The animals shall be slaughtered only at times specified by the Department, for an establishment under State inspection, or by the United States Department of Agriculture for a Federally inspected establishment. Such livestock need not be held for other inspections unless specifically required by the Department or United States Department of Agriculture; provided, however, records shall be prepared and maintained as required herein and such animals may not be sold, transferred, or transported to another person unless authorized by permit pursuant to this article;
- (c) If the receiving consignee is a person licensed by the Department to slaughter animals for pet food, the livestock may be used for food purposes in accordance with the limitations of the license after passing inspection by the Department at the establishment. Records shall be prepared and maintained as required herein and such animals shall not be sold, transferred, or transported to another person unless authorized by permit;
- (d) If the receiving consignee is a renderer licensed by the Department, the livestock may be killed and rendered without holding such animals for inspection unless specifically required by the permit or other order of the Department. Records shall be prepared and maintained as provided herein and such animals shall not be sold, transferred, or transported to another person unless authorized by permit pursuant to this article;
- (e) If the receiving consignee is a saleyard or public stockyard, the livestock shall be held for inspection and proof of its identity furnished to the Department. Such animals may not be sold, transferred, or transported to another person except under permit of the Department. Records shall be prepared and maintained as provided herein.

(f) If the receiving consignee is a person engaged in the business of buying or transporting animals the livestock may be disposed of only in accordance with this regulation to a slaughter establishment under inspection by the Department or United States Department of Agriculture, to a licensed pet food slaughterer, to a licensed renderer or to a salesyard or public stockyard. Records shall be prepared and maintained as required herein and such animals shall not be sold, transferred or transported to another person or destination unless authorized by permit.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 9561, 9562, 9570, 18721, 18722 and 18851, Food and Agricultural Code.

Title 3. Food and Agriculture

Division 2. Animal Industry

Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals

Article 2. Disposition of Animals Manifesting Disease

§ 1300.13. Permit for Transfer or Sale of Livestock Manifesting Disease.

(a) Livestock which are received by a consignee operating a salesyard or public stockyard, may be sold, transferred or transported to another person specified in section 1300.12 (b), (c), or (d) when authorized by a general permit of the Department. Such permit shall not require a separate approval for each transaction.

(b) Livestock which are received by a consignee operating a salesyard or public stockyard may be sold, transferred or transported to another person not specified in section 1300.12 (b), (c), or (d) when authorized by a special permit of the Department. Such permit shall be signed by both the transferor and transferee and shall provide for the identification and segregation of the animals, a statement of intended use of the animals, notification to the Department of the movement and location of such animals, and the preparing and maintaining of pertinent records.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 9561, 9562, 9570 and 18851, Food and Agricultural Code.

Title 3. Food and Agriculture

Division 2. Animal Industry

Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals

Article 2. Disposition of Animals Manifesting Disease

§ 1300.14. Retention of Documents.

(a) Records required by this subchapter shall be maintained for a period of two (2) years after the date of receipt of the animals and shall be made available to any agent of the Department.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Section 18727, Food and Agricultural Code.

Title 3. Food and Agriculture
Division 2. Animal Industry
Chapter 7. Control of Diseased Animals
Article 2. Disposition of Animals Manifesting Disease
➡§ 1300.15. Violations.

(a) Any owner or person in possession of livestock sold, transferred, or transported in violation of the permit requirement of section 1300.12, may be required to dispose of the animals at his own expense as prescribed by the Department, and in a manner suitable under the circumstances for accomplishing the purposes of this chapter.

(b) Failure to comply with any part of this article constitutes a violation.

(c) The Department shall act consistent with any existing enforcement authority concurrently or at a later date unless otherwise prohibited. Such authority includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) Denial, suspension, or revocation of a license, registration, certificate, permit, exception, or other indicia of authority issued by the Department;

(2) Civil or administrative penalties;

(3) Referral to the appropriate District Attorney or the Attorney General for criminal prosecution or other appropriate remedy; and,

(4) Reimbursement to the Department for any costs incurred due to any violation of this article.

Note: Authority cited: Section 407, Food and Agricultural Code. Reference: Sections 9166, 9561, 9562, 9570 and 9574, Food and Agricultural Code.